

Go Tell it on the Mountain

Life is in the Breath

October 12-13, 2012

St John's Anglican Church, Peterborough

The art and spiritual discipline of Biblical Storytelling

Kathy Hood Culmer, this year's guest speaker, is an author, storyteller, speaker, and teacher. A graduate of Spelman College and the University of South Florida, Kathy has taught on the secondary and college levels and in a variety of subject areas ranging from English to Speech Communications, to Broadcast Journalism, to Religious Education.

As a storyteller, she has told in churches, schools, libraries, at festivals, retreats, on college campuses, in business settings, and wherever else there has been an ear. Additionally, Kathy has presented a variety of storytelling workshops and related topics.

Kathy's life's work is to provide words of encouragement, truth, and inspiration to others through telling, writing, and speaking.

Workshops for all levels of storytellers from beginners to advanced -
Learning Techniques, Dramatic Skills, Coaching and more
Epic Telling: Romp through Scripture "Like a Mighty Wind"